

TCCPG

Teacher Certification
Program for College
Graduates

Avery Point Hartford Waterbury

Become
a middle or high school teacher in one year

UConn
NEAG SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

EARN CONNECTICUT TEACHER CERTIFICATION & MASTER'S DEGREE

The Teacher Certification Program for College Graduates is a rigorous cohort program that has been preparing teachers for more than a decade. Committed to urban education, TCCPG works with the region's diverse schools as well as districts throughout the state.

Individuals who have completed a bachelor's degree related to one of our core secondary academic disciplines can earn a master's degree in education and become qualified to teach grades 7-12 in the following certification areas — all within one year:

- Agriculture Education (PK-12)
- English Education
- Mathematics Education
- Science Education
- Social Studies Education
- Special Education (K-12)
- World Languages Education

Avery Point: Mathematics Education, Science Education, Special Education

Hartford and Waterbury: Agricultural Education, English Education, Mathematics Education, Science Education, Social Studies Education, Special Education, World Languages Education

ADMISSION MATERIALS

All students seeking admission into the Teacher Certification Program for College Graduates must be formally admitted to the program through the University's Graduate School website.

The application materials specific to the program are:

- A bachelor's degree and the required number of courses in your teaching content area to satisfy education and certification requirements.
- Admitted students must take Praxis Core or submit qualifying ACT, GRE, SAT, or ACTFL scores
- Passing scores on Praxis II in your content area
- U.S. History survey course
- Personal statement of purpose
- Official transcripts of all collegiate work
- A resume
- Residence Affidavit

PROGRAM CALENDAR

The accelerated program requires a full-time commitment. The program is divided into four semesters, outlined below:

Summer Session I

June to mid-July
Monday - Thursday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Summer Session II

Mid-July to August
Monday - Thursday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Fall Semester

Full-time student teaching for 60 school days in a middle or high school setting. You will attend an evening seminar once a week.

Spring Semester

Four courses and an internship, which consists of working with a master teacher at a local school, researching an educational issue for 10 hours per week.

* Days and times are subject to change.

Application Deadline

Applications Accepted
Sept. 1 - Dec. 1
grad.uconn.edu

For more information, visit s.uconn.edu/teach

The University of Connecticut's
Teacher Certification Program for College Graduates encourages student from traditionally underrepresented groups to apply.

QUESTIONS?

Contact us!

Avery Point Campus
Megan Pichette
megan.pichette@uconn.edu
860.405.9302

Hartford Downtown Campus
Merly Downey
merly.downey@uconn.edu
959.200.3818

Waterbury Campus
Ann Marie Shanahan
ann_marie.shanahan@uconn.edu
203.236.9926

UConn
NEAG SCHOOL OF EDUCATION